

Third party registration

Under section 130ZUA of the Electoral Act 1985 (the Act), a third party that incurs or intends to incur more than $10,000 in political expenditure during the designated period in relation to an election must be registered with the Electoral Commission of South Australia (ECSA) before incurring such expenditure.

- Applications must be submitted at least 45 days before the end of the relevant register period, and prior to exceeding the $10,000 threshold.
- ECSA maintains and publishes a register of third parties on its website. The name and address of the third party will be publicly available.
- If any details provided in this application change after registration, the agent of the third party must notify ECSA within 30 days.
- A third party must maintain a state campaign account for electoral expenditure, donations, and loans and notify ECSA using the state campaign account notification form.
